

LinkedIn	https://www.linkedin.com/in/michelle-adelman-8129602/
Name	Michelle Adelman
Cornell Affiliation	BS '89
Job Title	Founder & CEO
Company	Crossover Quality Meats Group, Inc.
	Michelle Adelman is an entrepreneur and operator with 35 years of leadership experience across strategy, consulting, private equity, and sustainable food innovation. She is the Founder & CEO of Crossover Meats, a blended ground meat company scaling in the U.S. market. Michelle is also the Founder of Accite Holdings, a boutique venture-building firm focused on innovating, starting, and scaling sustainable food businesses globally. Through Accite, she has founded and supported multiple ventures including Go Fresh! and Infinite Foods, and worked across the food value chain from primary production through commercialization. Prior to entrepreneurship, Michelle spent over two decades at Accenture, ultimately serving as a Global Managing Director, leading large-scale transformation programs for Fortune 500 companies across retail, consumer goods, healthcare, telecommunications, and natural resources. She later served as CEO of a U.S.-based, private equity-backed home health services company, building a platform to help hospitals expand and transform home-based care delivery and as Group Strategy Executive for Econet Group – a pan-African diversified telecommunications and media company. Michelle has been recognized by Forbes Africa (“20 New Wealth Creators”) and E&Y’s Meaningful Business 100. Michelle currently serves as a Trustee of Chautauqua Institution. She holds an Engineering degree from Cornell University